

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

QUESTION 1: Debbie Alsdorf writes, “Since the heart is the center of who we are, the heart will always be the focus from God’s side of things” (page 45). What are some things we can do to keep a pure heart?

QUESTION 2: Bitterness and blessing are opposing paths. Which path do you lean towards most? Why? (page 45)

QUESTION 3: Debbie Alsdorf writes, “We have a choice each day; we have to come and follow. He is the miracle worker, but we must daily come” (page 55). Have you learned to be a good follower, or are you trying to take the lead in your life?

QUESTION 4: We belong to the labels we wear in our hearts. What label did you wear in childhood? What label are you wearing today?

QUESTION 5: “When you became a Christian you became completely and totally His- body, soul and spirit. And as His you are now a temple of the living God,” Debbie Alsdorf (page 68). What does it mean to you to realize that Christ is in you and wants to work through you?

QUESTION 6: Share an example of not being conformed to this world. (page 78)

QUESTION 7: Read Romans 12:1-3. What habits or activities help you renew your mind in Christ?

QUESTION 8: To bear the Fruit of Jesus you must be connected to the Holy Spirit in your life. We connect through prayer, His Word, fellowship, and obedience. Which of these four methods helps you connect most? Which is a challenge for you today? (page 91)

QUESTION 9: “Focus is a key element to living up in relationship with God,” Debbie Alsdorf (page 103). Share a time when you were laser-focused with God.

QUESTION 10: We learned to LIVE UP! during our daily devotionals last week. How did these dares speak to you personally? Is there one dare that really took root in your heart this week?